

Unhurried Olympia Details:

Conversations begin at 2:30 and last for as long as 90 minutes. You may want to arrive slightly earlier to get some refreshments at the café, though there is no requirement to do so.

There will be an “Unhurried Olympia” sign at our tables so you can find us.

There are a maximum of 8 attendees at each conversation. You will receive a note from me when you have reserved a seat at the table. If we are full, I will let you know you are on the waiting list.

Please let me know if you registered and find out you are unable to attend, so I can let other's know of the openings.

Unhurried Olympia discussions are offered free of charge.

I look forward to talking with you.
